NIGHT SCHOOL REOPENED FOR FOREIGNERS OF CITY

Established in Franklin Building Through Efforts of D. A. R. and Council of Jewish Women.

D. A. R. and Council of Jewish Women.

Although discontinued on March 20, on account of a lack of funds, a night school has been re-established by the local chapter of the Daugitters of the English language. Inch counters or sell bananase in the street, been every effect to learn the Local chapter of the Daugitters of the English language.

Last night saw the inauguration of a new regime, a night school system under a new regime, a night school system under the public school system under the public school system under the public school system will be introduced. Although for some years the particularly for foreigners, but open to ethers who have to work during the day.

A motley group of about forty persons, of almost every nationality, of all ages from twelve to thirty-five years, gathered in a room at the Franklin school building at 7.20 o'clock last evening, many of them to attend a school in which the English language is taught, for the English lan
